48 HOURS PRESENTS: LIVE TO TELL: “The Railroad Killer” - A report on the August 29, 1997 attack on two University of Kentucky students as they walked along the railroad tracks in Lexington, Kentucky. Chris Maier was killed by his attacker who then proceeded to stab, beat, and rape Holly Dunn, who miraculously survived her injuries. Fourteen months after Holly’s attack, Dr. Claudia Benton was murdered inside her Houston, Texas area home, located near railroad tracks. Lexington Detective Craig Sorrell received a call from ViCAP, a national crime registry database, linking the crimes. Through fingerprint analysis, they identified Rafael Resendez-Ramirez as the suspect. After his arrest, he was ultimately identified as Angel Maturino Resendiz. His trial started in May of 2000 in Houston; he was found guilty of capital murder. Holly testified in the penalty phase of the trial and identified Resendiz in court. The jury decided he was a future danger to society and the judge sentenced him to death. He was executed in June of 2006. Holly chose not to attend the execution. She has dedicated her life to helping other victims and founded Holly’s House, a child and adult advocacy center in Evansville, Indiana. Onscreen graphics: By the time of his execution, Resendiz was linked to at least fifteen murders in six states. Authorities learned he killed a teenage couple in Florida, just months before he attacked Chris and Holly. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/03/13 rebroadcast: By the time of his execution, Resendez was linked to at least fifteen murders in six states. 09/09/17

48 HOURS: “Stalking: Out of the Shadows” (9:00-10:00p) and “Stalked” (10:00-11:00p) - a two-part investigation into stalking -- the victims, the stalkers, the dangers and long-term psychological damage this torment causes; and the efforts by actress Pauley Perrette to change ineffective laws that do not protect the victims. Also included: a report on the stalking death of singer Christina Grimmie, who was shot dead by an obsessed fan she didn’t even know was stalking her online; and an interview with Justin Massler -- a serial stalker with a diagnosed mental illness, who was arrested for stalking Ivanka Trump.

(1) Stalking: Out of the Shadows (9:00-10:00p) - the death of Christina Grimmie is detailed. She was shot dead by an obsessed fan she did not know was stalking her who showed up at a concert armed with two handguns and pulled the trigger, killing Grimmie and himself. The case was similar to the 1989 death of actress Rebecca Schaeffer, in that the stalker fantasizes that he is in a relationship with his victim and wants a permanent bond. Stalking is a silent crime with many victims afraid to speak out, fearing they will enrage their stalker. Also included: actress Pauley Perrette, a stalking victim herself, talks about her efforts to change stalking laws and the bonds she has formed with other victims. Perrette does not think her stalker will ever leave her alone. (OAD: 02/25/17)

(2) Stalked (10:00-11:00p) - some stalkers become obsessed with people they do not know. Leonora Claire has been stalked by a man she met only once, who read about her in a magazine and came to an art exhibit she curated. Serial stalker Justin Massler has been obsessed with her for nearly six years and she has lived in constant fear, believing he could harm her at any time. Massler, who has been diagnosed with a mental illness, will not leave her alone. In 2010, he was arrested for stalking Ivanka Trump, and previously targeted the Kardashian family. Now, the secret service is interested in him because of the Trump connection. Included is an interview with Massler, whom anchor Erin Moriarty tracked down and conducted an interview via the internet. His mother says he is living near her in Nevada and is getting medication. He has not contacted Leonora Claire in four months. On-screen text graphic: Christina Grimmie’s new single “Invisible” was just released by her family, ZXL Music and Republic Records. Proceeds will endow a memorial fund in her name. Learn more about stalking, what you can do to prevent it and what you can do if you’re being stalked. Go to 48Hours.com. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 09/16/17 48 HOURS: “Hunted” - an investigation into the case of a serial rapist, who preyed on women young and old, in multiple states and over a period of years -- and the search to stop him. The rapist worked with military precision, tracking the women’s schedules, photographing them during the attacks and then forcing the women to shower or bathe as a way to clear out any evidence. Investigators from two Colorado police departments (Golden and Westminister) and the FBI pieced together the assailant’s trail through smart policing, collaboration and luck. In 2011, a Golden, Colorado case, led to a similar case in nearby Westminister, Colorado. In comparing details of the attacks, detectives realized they were on the trail of a serial rapist. That information and another nearby case led them to Marc O’Leary, a 32-year-old Army veteran, who was eventually arrested. O’Leary ultimately pled guilty to sexual assault charges and then agreed to talk about the crimes. This led to a rare glimpse into the mind of a serial rapist, something detectives could never have imagined. Also featured is the story of a young Washington woman who the detectives discovered had been raped by O’Leary. Initially, the Lynnwood, Washington police did not believe her story. After the truth came out, the police force received training regarding this mistake. On-screen text graphic: Stacy Galbraith is now an agent for the Colorado Bureau of Investigation. Edna Hendershot was promoted to the rank of sergeant with the Westminister Police Department. Galbraith and Hendershot both stay in contact with the women Marc O’Leary attacked. Interviewed: Mary (rape victim, not her real name); Stacy Galbraith (Golden CO police detective); Edna Hendershot (Westminister, CO police detective); Jonny Grusing (FBI Special Agent); Bob Weiner (Deputy Jefferson County District Attorney); Amy Wozny (O’Leary’s former girlfriend); Julie Pech (potential victim); Rodney Cohnheim (Lynnwood, WA Police Department Commander). (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chris O’Connell, Lauren Clark, Lindsey Schwartz) (OAD: 11/19/16)
- 09/23/17 48 HOURS: SOLVE THIS CASE: “Who Killed Kay Wenal” - an investigation into the unsolved murder of Kay Wenal, who was found murdered inside her Georgia home in 2008. The case has been difficult to solve because there were no fingerprints, no evidence of a break-in and the killer took the weapon with him. Kay did not seem to have any enemies and her husband had a solid alibi. The only clues in the case are an expletive-filled cut-and-paste note sent to a newspaper and a police sketch of a suspect seen the day before and the day of the murder by a neighbor. Investigators are asking the public-at-large to help solve the crime. Gwinnett County Police Sergeant John Richter and Lieutenant Steven Shaw, the current detectives assigned to the case, and investigators hired by Hal Wenal -- John Inosigna, Ned Timmons, a retired FBI agent and his ex-wife, investigator Kathleen Timmons, and retired Gwinnett County Police Lieutenant Charlie Bishop discuss the case --including their theories. Former FBI profiler Mary Ellen O’Toole discusses her opinions regarding the note sent to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. The hope is that exposing critical evidence to a nationwide audience on television, online and on social media platforms will help to solve this case. Also interviewed: Pam Sleeper (Kay Wenal’s sister); David Hughes (contractor/business associate). On-screen text graphic: Anyone with information is asked to contact: Gwinnett County Criminal Investigation Division anonymous tip line at 770-513-5390. Crime Stoppers Atlanta: 404-577-TIPS/1-404-423-8477. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Lisa Freed, Michelle Feuer) (OAD: 01/28/17)
- 09/30/17 48 HOURS SPECIAL: “OJ Simpson: Endgame” (9:00-10:00p) – on the eve of O.J. Simpson’s release from a Nevada prison after serving time on armed robbery charges, this report examines the ongoing fascination with former NFL star O.J. Simpson, the infamous and landmark trial for the murder of Nicole Brown Simpson and Ron Goldman, the controversy that surrounded it, the impact it had on race relations, how the verdict was more than just about a man on trial -- including the current and recent uproar over race, patriotism and free speech in America. Also included is the role of domestic violence in the murder trial and how the case impacted the careers of those involved. Interviewed: Fred Goldman (father of Ron Goldman); Tanya Brown (sister of Nicole Brown Simpson); Joe Bell (Simpson’s childhood friend); Harry Edwards (Prof. Emeritus, UC Berkeley); Ron Shipp (former LAPD Officer/Simpson friend); Jim Newton (former Los Angeles Times reporter); Sylvester Monroe (writer); Lili Anolik (Vanity Fair contributing editor); Kato Kaelin (infamous houseguest); members of Simpson’s defense team: Carl Douglas, F. 09/30/17

48 HOURS: “The Widow on Solway Road” (10:00-11:00p) – an investigation into the murder case against Raynella Leath for the death of her second husband, David Leath, who was found shot dead in his marital bed, the trial, and the mysterious death of the widow’s first husband, Ed Dossett, originally classified as an agricultural accident. Raynella and Ed Dossett were a power couple in Knoxville, Tennessee, where Dossett was the Knox County District Attorney General. Tragedy befell them, when Ed was diagnosed with terminal cancer; he then died in a freak accident on the family farm. Six months later, Raynella married David Leath, the local barber. After Leath’s death, the wheels of justice moved slowly, and Leath’s daughter, Cindy Wilkerson, filed a civil suit against Raynella. Prosecutors took notice and interest was revived in Dossett’s death. One theory was that Dossett’s unusual death was more about insurance money than cancer. His medical records were reviewed and the cause of death was ruled to be a morphine overdose. In 2009, Raynella went on trial for David Leath’s death but the jury deadlocked. In the second trial, she was convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. After six years, the conviction was tossed out, because the judge was revealed to have been impaired by drug addiction. In 2017, fourteen years after Leath’s death, a third trial begins, but before the jury has a chance to deliberate, Judge Paul Summers (soon to be retiring), grants an acquittal (not guilty), dismissing the case; saying that prosecution had not met its case. Under Tennessee law, there is no appeal. Prosecutors are stunned. Jurors believe that, had they deliberated, they would have convicted her. Information also came to light about her trying to murder another man, Steve Walker, who had found out that his wife had given birth to Ed Dossett’s biological child. Raynella Leath is a free woman. On-screen text graphic: Prosecutors intend to file a petition to exhume the body of Raynella’s first husband, Ed Dossett, to gather more evidence. They will decide whether to review charges against her for his death. Raynella has moved back to the farm outside Knoxville on Solway Road. Interviewed: Diane Fanning (author); Cindy Wilderson (Leath’s daughter); Beth Roberts (Leath’s cousin); Steve Crump (prosecutor); Rebecca LeGrand and Josh Hedrick (defense attorneys); Dr. Greg Davis (Kentucky state medical examiner/defense consulting doctor); Steve Walker (intended victim); Paul Summers (trial judge, now retired); Michael Persicano, Jesse Caps, William McMichael (jurors) (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Josh Gaynor, Lisa Freed)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

“Protecting the Sacred: Water, the Environment & Climate Change” – an interfaith special looking at how communities are responding to one of the greatest threats of our time. Featured are: (1) Dr. Christiana Zenner Peppard, associate professor of theology, science and ethics at Fordham University in New York, who discusses how water as a vital and life-giving resource is also one of the ways people feel the effects of climate change and what the implications are for individuals and society in the long term. (2) Last year, 10,000 Native American and non-native demonstrators took a stand against the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline near Standing Rock Sioux Reservation in North Dakota. The construction of the fossil fuel pipeline near the tribe’s land put their only source of drinking water at risk. Tara Houska, national campaigns director for Honor the Earth and a member of the Couchiching First Nation in Ontario, reflects on native traditions, their role as environmental stewards and bringing attention to issues related to climate change. (3) Dr. Katharine Hayhoe, climate scientist and professor at Texas Tech University, speaks to the negative impact that climate change is having on the planet and how there is a narrow window of opportunity to mitigate further damage. (4) In Lancaster, PA, a grassroots coalition of people of faith and no particular faith formed “Lancaster Against Pipelines” three years ago to oppose the construction of a fossil fuel pipeline in the area. The Adorers of the Blood of Christ, a Catholic order of nuns, joined the resistance last year and recently filed a lawsuit against the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) for authorizing the construction and operation of the Atlantic Sunrise Pipeline. Among those interviewed: Malinda and Mark Clatterbuck, co-founders, Lancaster Against Pipelines and Sister Sara Dwyer, ASC. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Produce & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke.
